

Workshop 1

Title – Climate and resource friendly agriculture

During this workshop, we will look at various EU projects that address the challenges of climate change in the advisory work and in practice.

- Speaker 1 – Sarah Erbanova, SRUC/SAC Consulting, Scotland
- Speaker 2 – Annelie Bernhart, FÜAK, Germany
- Speaker 3 – Michael Mayer, FÜAK, Germany
- Speaker 4 – Michael Billensteiner, Styrian Chamber of Agriculture, Austria
- Speaker 5 – Ruth Moser, AGRIDEA, Switzerland

Workshop 2

Title – Agricultural dialogue with society

The future viability of agriculture is closely linked to society's acceptance of its way of doing business. It is important to find the right ways to be understood. In this workshop, we will look at methods and formats.

- Speaker 1 – Simone Hunziker, AGRIDEA, Switzerland
- Speaker 2 – Anna Gindl, Chamber of Agriculture of Lower Austria
- Speaker 3 – Dr. Malte Rubach, FÜAK, Germany
- Speaker 4 – Dr. Christian Thalmann, University of Applied Sciences for Agricultural, Forest and Food Sciences, Switzerland
-

Workshop 3

Title – Young EUFRAS: For young advisers

The target audience for this workshop are advisers under the age of 35.

This workshop will be offered in English only.

- Speaker 1 – Rachel Clancy, Teagasc, Ireland
- Speaker 2 – Jack Munro, SAC Consulting, Scotland
- Speaker 3 – Bernadette Bennett, Teagasc, Ireland
- Speaker 4 – Edgars Dzelme, Latvian Rural Advisory and Training Centre
- Speaker 5 – Pablo Asensio, FÜAK, Germany

Workshop 4

Title – Diversification, agritourism and consumer trends: Adding value to farm businesses

This workshop aims to showcase some of the ways which diversification, agritourism and consumer trends are shaping farm businesses in Scotland.

- Speaker 1 – Claire Sloan, Ardross Farm Shop, Scotland
- Speaker 2 – Riddell Graham, Scottish Agritourism
- Speaker 3 – Calum Johnson, SAC Consulting, Scotland
- Speaker 4 – Vicky Miller, Visit Scotland

Workshop 5

Title – New technology and data – tools for advisors

In this workshop, a range of different technologies and research will be showcased to offer new insights into future opportunities for agriculture.

- Speaker 1 – Mazdak Salavati, SRUC, Scotland
- Speaker 2 – Scott Davies, Agrecalc, Scotland
- Speaker 3 – Jim Wilson, Soil Essentials, Scotland
- Speaker 4 – TBC, Eurofins, UK and Europe

Workshop 6

Title – Building resilience in the livestock sector

We will explore the ways in which we can support our livestock sector to become more sustainable and resilient as we face a range of local and global challenges.

- Speaker 1 – Carol-Anne Duthie, SRUC, Scotland
- Speaker 2 – Gavin Hill, SAC Consulting, Scotland
- Speaker 3 – Markus Rombach, AGRIDEA, Switzerland
- Speaker 4 – Robert Neill, Upper Nisbet Farm, Scotland

Workshop 7

Title – Safeguarding and enhancing our natural resources

This workshop will explore how we manage and develop natural resources to ensure we can contribute more effectively to reaching net-zero and restoring biodiversity.

- Speaker 1 – Lorna Cole, SAC Consulting, Scotland
- Speaker 2 – Rory Christie, Dourie Farm, Scotland
- Speaker 3 – John Farquhar, SAC Consulting, Scotland
- Speaker 4 – Christian Werni, Styrian Chamber of Agriculture, Austria

Workshop 8

Title – Importance of cross-visits (Preparation and implementation)

This workshop will be offered in English only.

- Speaker 1 – Domagoj Gorup, SEASN project manager
- Speaker 2 – Igor Hrovatič, SEASN President & Head of the Slovenian Advisory Service
- Speaker 3 – Urban Hrovatič, SEASN project associate
- Speaker 4 – Agnes Jakab, SEASN

Workshop 9

Title – QuantiFarm Digital Innovation Academy: Training Session

QuantiFarm's Digital Innovation Academy aims to raise farm advisors' awareness on digital solutions and strengthen capacities in delivering innovative advisory services to farmers.

This workshop will be offered in English only.

This workshop will run to 4.30pm (unlike the others which finish at 4pm).

- Speaker 1 – Dionysios Solomos, Gaia Epicheirein, Greece
- Speaker 2 – George Charvalis, Neupublic SA, Greece